

Will of John Carrington

I John Carrington of Orange County, of State of No Carolina being in perfect state of health, but weake in body Do make and ordain this my last will & Testament, to wit, I will that all my just debts be paid at the reasonable discretion of my Executrix & Excutors hereafter named and to effect which

1st I will my son Thomas Carrington one bed & furniture, to him & his heirs forever
???

I leave to my wife, Mary Carrington, all the remainder of my property, ??, hogs, cows & horses during her natural life & after which if the property then on hand cannot be equally divided amongst the legal representatives, the same to be sold to the highest bidders at a credit of twelve months & divided between the same.

I nominate & appoint my two sons, Nathl Carrington & Ephrain Carrington, Executors, to this my last will & Testament & do hereby disanull all others heretofore made.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand & seal this fifteenth day of February 1803.